DEMOCRACY. On the passage of the Civil Rights Bill in the Senate over the President's veto, Garritt Davis, a leading Democrat said:

Suppose a Union member had used such language in the Senate, and there is not a Democratic paper in the land but would have sent it out in every issue, blazoned in cappresented, and a number of bills reported. A ital letters, and held it up as expressive of the aim and purpose of the Union party. But coming from a Democratic Senator, it excites little surprise. And why? Because nobody expects anything else from the party that for five years has been heart and hand with the avowed traitors who have been doing all in their power to overthrow and destroy the Gor.

The old school Presbyterian Assembly, which is now in session in St. Louis, emphatically declaring Mr. Delano entitled to his seat was cline to repudiate the action of last year against Slavery. The Louisville Presbytery having passed at its last annual meeting a resolution passed at its last annual meeting a resolution of petitions were received, and the House adto repudinte that action, the General Assembly on May 18, by the large majority of 201 against 50, excluded the Louisville Presbytery Commissioners. The pro-Slavery party was, of course, greatly inceused at this act. Ex-Gov. Wick-liffe, one of the Lay Commissioners, declared it

ACTION OF PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

May 21.—Sendle—Mr. Wilson reported the House bill to revive the grade of General, with simily that "the Union Rapublican party of Virginia are in favor of a system of free schools whereby universal education may be disseminated." In addition, the chairman of the convention was authorized to appoint a committee to wait upon the President and Congress. The report is signed by George Tacker, of Alexanist of Portsmouth. P. Dudley, of Heurico, W. R. Smith, of Frederick; J. W. Beemer, of Clark, G. W. Williams, of Albemarle, and John Hauxhurst, of Fairfax.

It has been officially reported to General Howard. Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, that Generals Fullerton and Steadman, during their stay in Virginia, would scarcely listen to a Union man, white or black unless convinced that he was dissatisfied with the operations of the Bureau, Every rebell complaint was carefully noted by the Commissioners, and the whole inspection, judging from trustworthy reports, is grossly nafair, as future developments will show.—N. A NEW ASPECT OF THE COLORADO VETO. The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune writes as follows: "It is asserted to-day by reliable men that on Sunday night the President sent for the Colorado Sen-ators. They were received by Mr. Cooper, his private Secretary, and were sounded as to their political views; and intimations made that if they were prepared to sustain the President's policy he could arrange to have the bill signed. They declined to do so, and were finally ushered into the presence of the President, and the offer was there made directly to them: but they were unwilling to abandon their openly-avowed principles of a lifetime, and said that they pre-ferred to let the bill be vetoed. If this statement is not correct, the Senators should deny it.
